Ben Rosenthal and E. T. Dobbins Run on the 22nd.

For sometime past, negotiations have been pending for a foot race between Rosenthal of Hawthorne and E. T. Dobbins, a California sprinter, and yesterday the forfeit money was deposited in the Bullion & Exchange Bank and the following articles of agreement signed:

This agreement, entered into this 10th day of June, 1890, by and between J. Furlong, of Carson, Ormsby county, State of Nevada, and C. E. Reed, of Hawthorne, Esmeralda county, same State.

Witnesseth: That said J. Furlong, as backer and representative of E. T. Dobbins, a foot-racer, and th. said C. E. Reed, as backer and representative of Ben Rosenthal, a footracer, having each deposited, with the Bullion & Exchange Bank, Carson City, Nevada, the sum of five hundred [500] dollars, forfeit money, agree that on or before the 14th day of June, 1890, to deposit with said bank a further sum of one thousand [1000.00] dollars each, and again further agree each to deposit a final sum at said bank, on or before the 21st day of June, 1890, of one thousand five hundred [1500.00] dollars, making in all three thousand [3000.00] dollars by each deposited.

The said E. T. Dobbins and Ben Rosenthal, shall on the 22nd day of June, 1890, at Carson on level or as near level ground as can be obtained, run a footrace of the distance of one hundred [100] yards, Rosenthal to have three [3] yards the start of Dobbins, the winner of the race and his backer to take all of the money deposited as aforesaid, and also the net proceeds of the admissions at the gate of the track.

C. E. Reed shall on that said day select one judge, and J. Furlong one judge, and these so selected to select a third judge, and the decision of the majority of the three judges to be final, and the stakeholder is hereby authorized to pay the money in accordance with their decision and these articles of agreement.

The start to be by mutual consent, and Rosenthal to have the left side of said track and Dobbins to have the right of said track. Each runner shall keep his own side of the track, and shall not run in on the other side thereof during the race.

Should either of the parties to this agreement fail in any manner to comply with the terms of this agreement, he shall forfeit to the other party all the money deposited as aforesaid.

Signed:—

C. E. REED,
JOHN FURLONG.

Witness: C. H. Colburn.

This is the largest amount of money ever run for in this State and is a square race for "the stuff." It will be run on the Agricultural Society grounds and a large amount of money will be staked on the side between now and the 22nd.

The "Deestrick Skule" entertainment to be given by the Young People's Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening is said to be something extra good. It was repeated for six consecutive evenings in Dr. Barrows' Congregational Church of San Francisco. It was also very successful in Sacramento, being given there by the young people of the church. It is to be given here for the benefit of the church these young people represent, and we hope they will be liberally patronized. The box sheet is now open at Hawkins' cigar store.

Mollie Thompson the agile young sombrette of the "A Pair of Jacks" Company is fairly astounding her audiences by her work. Her somersault finish to her song and dance at the end of the first act is receiving curtain calls everywhere. The somersault is so neatly and modestly done that there can be no offense taken and surprises the audience with a whirlwind of applause.

SENATOR JONES ON SILVER.

He Says It Must be Free Coinage or Nothing With Him.

WASHINGTON, June 8th.—A press representative talked with Senator Jones of Nevada to-day about silver matters. Since his recent brilliant speech in the Senate on silver, Mr. Jones has occupied a very enviable position among Washington statesmen. "Nevada may be rotten borough, but she has produced more silver and brains than a good many other boroughs," said senator Voorhees yesterday, in speaking of Senator Jones' recent speech.

"Senator Jones, how do you like the silver bill passed by the House on Saturday?" inquired the correspondent.

"You mean how I dislike it?" laughed the Senator. "Well it is by no means what we wanted and what Western people demanded. It simply makes a commodity of silver bullion. We wanted silver coinage, and this is what we got from the House when the bill came over on the Senate side. We will pass a free coinage bill or nothing. We will not favor any compromise measure. In the conference between both Houses on the matter I am hopeful that the House will accede to the demand of the country for silver coinage. We will impress upon them very forcibly the fact that if we have any silver legislation at all this session it must be something very nearly approaching the free coinage of silver."

"What would be the effect of the enactment of the so-called Windom bill into a law?" asked the reporter.

"Why it simply provides for the storage of silver bullion and issuance of certificates thereon, without bringing the addition of metal money into circulation. Some say that it is better than no bill at all, but I am inclined to believe matters would be as well or better under the present law on this subject."
